Urban League Hosts Doing Business with Federal Government Workshop

OKLAHOMA CITY – May 28, 2010 – The Urban League of Greater Oklahoma City will host “Doing Business with the Federal Government,” a free minority business workshop luncheon. The workshop will be held Thursday, June 3, 11:45 a.m., at Tinker Federal Credit Union, 1177 NE 23rd.

Participants will learn how to get a DUNS number, how to get registered in the federal database, and other requirements needed to do business with the federal government. The other benefits of registering in the federal database will also be discussed. Speakers include representatives from the small business office at Tinker Air Force Base.

Admission is free and open to the public. Lunch is also included. Space is limited, so reservations are required. To reserve a spot or for more information, contact Shani Rashidi at 424-5243 or srashidi@urbanleagueok.org.

The Urban League of Greater Oklahoma City Inc., an affiliate of the National Urban League, is a non-profit, United Way agency partner established in Oklahoma City in 1946. The League’s mission is to assist African Americans, other minorities and the poor to achieve social and economic equality.
