

Urban League
of Greater Oklahoma City, Inc.

*Empowering Communities.
Changing Lives.*

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For more information, contact:

Gayle Berry at gberry@urbanleagueok.org or 405.424.5243/550-3313 (cell)

Urban League Young Professionals Host Celebration of African American Authors

OKLAHOMA CITY – January 31, 2011 – Welcoming in Black History Month, the Urban League of Greater Oklahoma City Young Professionals will host its seventh annual Celebration of African American Authors, Saturday, February 5, 2011, 10 a.m. until 4 p.m., at Penn Square Mall,

Those attending the celebration will not only be able to purchase the books being showcased, but they will also have the opportunity to meet and share ideas with the participating authors.

Works cover an eclectic literary range comprising fiction, non-fiction, poetry, Christian writings, self-help books and works for children. Pertinent information will also be provided to aspiring writers on self-publishing opportunities. For more information about the event, contact Monique Bruner at 405-615-6711, deltareviewer@yahoo.com, or visit www.okculyp.org.

The Urban League Young Professionals, an auxiliary of the Urban League of Greater Oklahoma City, Inc., is comprised of professionals age 18 to 40. The group's primary mission is to support the Urban League and to serve as a vehicle for young urban professionals to engage in community service, fundraising, educational conferences, networking and professional development.

The Urban League of Greater Oklahoma City Inc., an affiliate of the National Urban League, is a non-profit, United Way agency partner established in Oklahoma City in 1946. The League's mission is to assist African Americans, other minorities and the poor to achieve social and economic equality. Visit www.ubranleagueok.org for more information.

###