Career Expo to Feature more than 50 Employers and Colleges

Urban League of Greater Oklahoma City to host annual Career and College Expo at Langston University, Oklahoma City Campus

Oklahoma City, OK - March 6, 2014 -- More than 50 Oklahoma employers and colleges will be at the Urban League of Greater Oklahoma City's Career and College Expo on March 27, 2014 from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. at the Langston University Oklahoma City campus, 4205 N. Lincoln Blvd. Admission is free and open to the public.

"We have had a record-breaking number of colleges and employers register to be at our Career and College Expo this year," said Dr. Valerie Thompson, Urban League president and CEO. "The Career Expo provides a one-stop event for our clients and other Oklahoma City job seekers to connect with a diverse selection of Oklahoma's top employers and learn more about higher education opportunities."

INTEGRIS Health, OCU School of Law, OU, Enterprise Rent-A-Car, Boeing, TFCU, US Foods, Association of General Contractors, Dell, Wright Career College and Braum's, among many more, will be present to answer questions and discuss employment information and education opportunities. Attendees are encouraged to bring resumes to apply while at the Career Expo.

The Career and College Expo is an annual event organized by the Urban League to help provide a diverse group of applicants with the opportunity for viable employment, education, and career advancement. Among the many employers sponsoring the event is INTEGRIS Health, Dell, Loves, Boeing Company, and Mercy. For a complete list of employers and colleges, visit www.urbanleagueok.org/events and click on the Career and College Expo link.
